Council paves way for Van Born Road resurfacing Agreement with Romulus to cost $625,750

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

With little or no comment from most council members, mayor and city council Tuesday night approved an intergovernmental agreement with the City of Romulus that paved the way for the much-needed resurfacing of Van Born Road.

The resurfacing project, between Venoy and Merriman roads, will cost approximately $625,750.

However, Ramzi El-Gharib, Wayne's City Engineer, informed council that approximately $512,176 of the total cost will be funded by a grant from the federal government.

"Wayne County's share of that is $63,796, of which we are obligated to pay $24,889," said El-Gharib. "Obviously we are very happy about all of this."

Council voted 6-0 to approve the agreement. Councilwoman Donna McEachern didn't attend the meeting. Mayor Robert Dickerson told council that she had been excused.

The city engineer also informed the local lawmakers that the project would get underway sometime this summer.

"As you already know, Van Born Road between Venoy and Merriman is scheduled to be resurfaced this construction season," El-Gharib said. "This joint road with the City of Romulus is under the jurisdiction of Wayne County."

"It (road resurfacing) has been approved for federal assistance under the Surface Treatment Program (STP), which is administered by the Michigan Department of Transportation."

Mayor Robert Dickerson greeted the city engineer's announcement as "good news" and pointed out that the road was in dire need of resurfacing.

Assistant City Manager Robert C. English, who replaced vacationing City Manager John Zech at the council table Tuesday night, noted that the project is budgeted in the 2201-02 fiscal year. The funding would come out of the Major Street Fund.

Wayne Officers attend Guns & Kid's conference

As matches and kids can be a deadly combination, so definitely can guns and kids.

And, how specifically can people keep guns away from kids?

That question was developed into the theme of a Michigan State University-sponsored conference attended by Wayne police officers Robert Puckett and Ryan Strong, who said they came away from East Lansing with knowledge they would like to share with the community.

Lt. Col. David Grossman addressed the law enforcement officers on the subject of "Stop Teaching Our Kids to Kill." An expert in the field of human aggression, and the causes of violence and violent crimes, Grossman provided the officers with research material and practical information on how to keep young people safe and from committing or becoming victims of violent behavior.

In S.A.R.A. - an acronym for Scanning, Analysis, Response and Assessment - Puckett and Strong received a model that, when mastered, may help individuals and groups to "critically survey, analyze, respond to and assess problems stemming from individual or group behavioral action or reaction that leads to aggression."

"The process collectively engages participants in seeking mutually agreeable solutions in a more efficient and effective manner of conflict resolution," Puckett stressed.

Officers Puckett and Strong also were given instructional text that may help defuse potentially volatile situations. The officers said that they were:

- Provided with K-12 Gun-Safety curriculum and materials;
- Provided with information on Michigan's Concealed Weapons Law;
- Provided with information on how to work cooperatively with school officials to determine the gun safety needs within their schools.

Patrolmen Robert Puckett and Ryan Strong may be reached by telephone by dialing the Wayne Police Department at 721-1414.

Local Dems set date for rummage sale

The Metro Wayne Democratic Club will hold a rummage sale beginning at 8 a.m. on July 21 at the Coil Living Center, corner of Chamberlain and Van Born Roads.

"We're sponsoring this rummage sale to help raise funds for our many projects, including our monthly food distribution to the needy," said Cliff Johnson, president of the Metro Wayne Democratic Club.

For further information about the rummage sale or the local Democratic Club, readers are urged to contact Johnson at 734-729-8881.

Senior Housing to receive new ranges, refrigerators

Tossing aside the low bid because they said it didn't meet all of the bidding requirements, Mayor Robert J. Dickerson and city council on Tuesday approved the administration's recommendation to purchase electric ranges and refrigerators from a Troy-based supplier.

The city will purchase for Public Housing some 61 electric ranges, 62 refrigerators to replace those presently at senior housing. The total price tag for the new appliances is $39,182.

City Engineer Ramzi El-Gharib told mayor and council that the low bidder, Barton Carrol's Inc., of Joliet, Ill. didn't meet all the bid requirements because 20 inch gas ranges were not included in the bid.

"We are recommending that Quality Appliance of Troy receive the bid at a price of $39,182," the city engineer stated.

El-Gharib added that the 46 20-inch electric ranges will be installed in one-bedroom senior and family units, while the 15 30-inch ranges will be placed in the 2,3, and 4 bedroom family units.

The 35 nine cubic feet refrigerators are scheduled to go into the one bedroom senior units, and the eight 14.4 cubic feet refrigerators will be placed in the one bedroom family units. The 19 16.4 cubic feet refrigerators are assigned to the 2,3 and 4 bedroom family units.

Council voted 6-0, with Councilwoman Donna McEachern absent from the proceedings, to accept Quality Appliances' bid.

Clinton is served notice

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

If you drive Clinton Street these days, be advised, the local police have their eyes on you.

Police Chief Mike Sumeracki informed council that he has beefed up patrols in the area in the wake of recent traffic complaints.

"At the June 19 council meeting," Sumeracki stated, "some residents expressed concerns over drivers operating their vehicles recklessly on Clinton, between Second Street and Wayne Road.

"We have taken the following preliminary steps to address their concerns," the police chief said.

Sumeracki said that the department has parked a speed trailer in the area and is also taking traffic counts and conducting selective enforcement in the area.

Top ladies 2 dedicated women honored by club

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

A woman who has an untiring spirit and limitless amount of energy to help others was named the recipient of the prestigious Top Ladies of Distinction, Inc. award.

Carolyn J. Martin, a charter member of the chapter, was selected as the "Top Top Lady 2001" by the organization whose officials made the presentation at their annual Founders' Day & Awards Luncheon.

The program, sponsored by the Status of Women Committee of the chapter, was held at the Doubletree Hotel in Romulus.

Martin has served in many capacities in the organization: Chairperson of the Status of Women Committee for three years and co-chairperson of the Senior Citizens Committee. The awards' recipient also assists at the chapter-sponsored "Cider Sips" held at the Thompson Towers in the fall and, in addition, has served as musician for TLOD-Area V Conferences over the past three years.

Martin finds time to assist at the Wayne County Family Center, donating toys, food and clothing as well as counseling mothers and children and providing transportation to church.

Carolyn J. Martin, a graduate of Kentucky State University and Eastern Michigan University, has a bachelor's and a master's degree in education. She is a retired teacher from the Wayne-Westland School District and the wife of the Rev. C. E. Martin, former pastor of Middle Baptist Church in Inkster.

She is also the mother of two sons, and a grandmother.

Martin is a member of the Palmer Road Baptist Church in Westland and she serves as the congregation's pianist and organist. She is the organizer and facilitator of the Ministers' Wives Support Group and serves as musician and helper at the Hope Nursing Home in Westland. She is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., Eta Iota Omega Chapter of Inkster.

Also honored this year was Reasther Everett. She was presented with the chapter's Lorraine J. Patterson DOVE Award. DOVE is an acronym for 'Dynamic Organized Volunteer Effort. The award is presented annually by the chapter's Status of Women Committee to an individual who has, through their volunteer efforts, dynamically impacted and enhanced the status of women.

Everett has been married to Arnell Everett for 48 years and is the mother of five adult children, grandmother of four and has two great-grandchildren.

She also is a member of St. James United Methodist Church for 40 years. She has been an outstanding volunteer in her community for more than 46 years. She has served as volunteers coordinator for the Wayne County Retired Senior Volunteer Program (R.S.V.P.) and as Family Service Advocate for the Wayne County Family Center.

Everett has served on the Western Wayne County NAACP Executive Board, an organization of which she is a lifetime member. She also is an active member of the Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD), the Westland Cultural Society, the Southeast Westland Homeowners Association, the Michigan Democratic Club, a Deputy Registrar, a Poll Worker, a Precinct 28 Delegate, a 13th Precinct Delegate and a 13th Democratic Executive Board Member.

Reasther is currently active with the "File for Life" program, which provides seniors with a magnetic kit (kept on a refrigerator) that has detailed information about the medical history and current medications used by the individual in case of an emergency.

The 2001 Top Ten Scholarship Award went to Athenee Eltrington, and the Top Teen of the Year Award was presented to Teens Ashley Williams and Kurtis Allen.

The Mistress of Ceremony was Helen Weeks and the chairperson of the Status of Women Committee this year was Tommie Butler.

Reasther Everett, (at left) and Carolyn J. Martin came away from the 2001 Top Ladies of Distinction's Founder's Day & Awards Luncheon with the top two honors. Everett was the recipient of the Lorraine J. Patterson award, while Martin was named the chapter's Top Top Lady - 2001.

Stage is set for Inkster Summerfest activities

From fireworks to a Gospelfest are among the many gala programs planned for the annual Inkster Summerfest.

The Summerfest will be staged on July 27-29 on the grounds of the Floyd B. Simmons Multipurpose Center, located at 29150 Carlysle Ave.

"We are planning many new programs that were not featured a year ago," said Ruth E. Williams, Summerfest director. "Again, we invite our entire community and neighboring friends to come out and have a great time. This is one of those events that all of our families can come together and really have fun.

According to the Summerfest Committee, there will be carnival rides, merchant booths, musical entertainment, family events, and a basketball tournament.

The fireworks display will take place Saturday evening. The following day, on Sunday, there will be a Gospelfest that includes several church congregations and their ministers and also soloists.

Here are the events tentatively scheduled for 6 to 11 p.m. on July 27, the first day of the Summerfest 2001:

- Aniyah McCullough, Jerome J. A. Maher, Randi and Jenhi Jefferson, Danesha Latham, Stephanie Jones, Ticane and Tyra Martin, Martyesha Benjamin, and Quran and Abdul-Rahman Muhamal will be on center stage;
- Live Entertainment, from 8 to 10:30 p.m. that includes Mix 92.3 WMXD's O'Neil Stevens; Mr. Melody, Danny Williams, Terry and Lois Dews, SIXX, DICE and Kulayd.

On Saturday, July 28, from noon to midnight, there is plenty of family fun activities planned. From 1 to 3 p.m., the program will include:

The Summerfest will be staged on July 27-29 on the grounds of the Floyd B. Simmons Multipurpose Center, located at 29150 Carlysle Ave.

- The Little Petting Farm, Connect Four Contest, Horseshoe Contest, Limbo Contest, Jump Rope Contest, Hula Hoop Contest, and a Watermelon Eating Contest.
- A 3 on 3 Basketball Tournament will be conducted, for ages 8 through 17, from 3 to 5 p.m.

• WJLB FM 98's Reggie Reg will be on center stage, and there will also be live entertainment from 6 to 8 p.m., including: LJPT at 5 p.m.; Robert Penn's Blues Orchestra at 6 p.m., featuring vocalist 'Lady T'; Kimmie Home - 7 p.m.; Straight Ahead, at 8 p.m.; Estrella Chambers, 9 p.m.; The Show Stopping Super Sonics, at 9:30 p.m. Fred and Tim Williams, Les Carter and Michael Moore, featuring Shadez;

On Sunday, July 29, the following events will take place:

- From 5 to 9 p.m., Special presentation by Summerfest Chairperson Ruth E. Williams to Senior Volunteer, Junior Vocalist; 2001 Scholarship Presentation; Dearing Detroit Dancers Group, Steve Dearing; Gospel Soloists - Thomas Nance, Regina Harris, Shar-mayne Moorer, Sol Lester; Barbara Coleman-Cooper, The Approved, the Rev. Walter Allen Steen, JenHi and Randi Jefferson, True Healers Under God (T.H.U.G.), Gospel Rappers - Regina Alexis Dubose.

Arrested for 'Green Eggs and Ham,' library policy seems extreme

I'm going to open my soapbox this week to others who have a variety of gripes. For instance, the man who was arrested for failing to return "Green Eggs and Ham."

You heard it right. A Westland man was arrested in Ann Arbor when police ran his license at a traffic accident. Lo and behold, a warrant for his arrest came back. The man was handcuffed and hauled off to jail because he checked-out the famous Dr. Seuss title, "Green Eggs and Ham," in 1999, and never returned it to the Westland Public Library.

The man was charged with a misdemeanor or in police lingo, "failure to return library materials." I said it back when this law was placed on the books a few year's back, and I'll say it again, arresting citizens for failure to return library books is an extreme measure that ought to be repealed. Let's worry about murders, armed robberies and sex offenders, and layoff the library thieves.

Reggie Miller is a lady with a couple of missions. The basketball all-star namesake, who is the former chief honcho, or honchess, for the Strawberry Festival is making news on two counts.

First, Ms. Miller is the leading voice behind opposition to the new skateboard park in Belleville. The City, after receiving a $100,000 grant is planning on building the skateboard facility in the Village Park.

Nay, says Ms. Miller. The park is too close to the very plush Victoria Commons where she and many other residents enjoy their quaint, quiet homes. The Village Park neither has the facilities (bathrooms, fencing, sidewalks, streetlights) nor the space (it is projected to be built within 100-feet of a tot-lot) necessary.

Maybe a secondary location ought to be explored, maybe not. I do know, however, that a half dozen teens spent a great deal of time last year raising funds and putting together plans for the much needed facility. They deserve that park, one place or another.

Ms. Miller was also front and center on another subject. She found a dozen dead ducks in one of the Victoria Commons ponds. The ducks were probably the victims of botulism (according to the DNR) but no one will be certain until tests are run this week.

A couple of weeks ago we asked readers to tell us whether we should print a list of area sex offenders or not. The overwhelming response was "yes." That was my original position, but when I broached the subject with colleagues, many offered the opposite opinion.

I should have known all along that readers deserve to know where these "guys" live. If you don't read it in our newspaper, the same list is now available on the WXYZ Channel 7 Web-site.

A bill is now being proposed to keep sex offenders from living within 1,000 feet of a school. Currently several states have such a law. In Michigan, one Detroit school has 18 registered sex offenders within that 1,000-foot boundary. Can you believe it?

Mike's musings

Mike Wilcox

The Gang who can't write straight

I'm no scarier than your great-grandmother. But for the sake of argument, I'm going to pretend that I'm a thug — a gang leader.

Call my gang the Evil Journalists.

Known as "The Gang Who Can't Write Straight," we're up to no good. We carry switchblade pens. When we're not doing drive-by shootings, we sell dope and guns.

We go your local public school and recruit your children to a life of sin and crime.

Since decent people hate us, we're hunted down by the law and often sent away to prisons.

Nevertheless, it's easy for us to recruit new members among today's alienated children. All we have to do is offer them a little forbidden fruit, a lot of protection, and the family and community that modern life withholds from them.

But sometimes society gets smart and makes jobs harder for us bad guys.

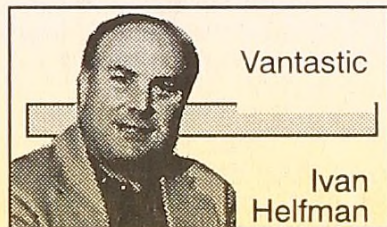

The new concealed weapons permit law is one barrier. By empowering qualified law-abiding citizens with guns, it's tougher for us to prey on the innocent.

With weapons, families and neighborhoods can detour my type of crimes. Defenseless women are no longer defenseless.

So we lost one. But despite this major setback, I am confident that my gang will thrive in Westland.

My optimism was buoyed by the Westland Planning Commission and City Council's unanimous rejections of the Star International Academy.

"I don't like charter schools,"

Vantastic

Ivan Helfman

said Planning Commissioner Justine Barns.

"I don't know of any schools in Wayne-Westland or Livonia that have kindergarten-12 students in the same building," said Councilman Bob Stottlemeyer. "There's a reason for separating them here too."

"Kindergarteners going in the same building as high school kids — I don't think so," said Bob Johnson, a citizen.

Whoopie. That was a close call. Had this charter school been allowed to bring back a K-12 grade school, we'd of had another setback.

My gang can only thrive in large consolidated school districts. Remove kids from their brothers and sisters and segregate them into groups of unrelated kids of the same age, then peer pressure is king. Wherever peer pressure rules, gangs — peer pressure machines — have it made. We can't have those caring family members lurking around — can we?

A return to small neighborhood-based schools run by parents would put us out of business.

And the independent drug dealers too. That's why there were few violent gangs before the creation of consolidated school districts in the post-war years. (Of course, students in Michigan's remaining one-room schoolhouses outperform students in consolidated school districts, but that's another column.)

That's also why we can't recruit members in K-12 Catholic and charter schools or from home-school groups. Those darn families get in our way.

Unfortunately, brothers and sisters and parents actually care for and love their children.

Cared-for children are as useless to me as they are to the Ritalin hucksters. Loved children are too secure, protected, and well-educated to fall for me and my temptations. Of to succumb to other sleazeballs preying on lost kids.

To put love back into the schools would put me out of business.

"The simplest solution is to let the Catholic Church take over education," said author Tom Wolfe, the mostly widely read (many would say the best) recorder of the "hog-stomping" American Empire at its zenith.

Wolfe, whose books, such as The Right Stuff, began movements that have done much to bring back traditional values and virtues to American art, architecture, and society, made the statement while raising money for the Children's Scholarship Fund foundation to send children to parochial or private schools where they could learn middle class family values — order, morals and a sense of accomplishment.

"The bourgeoisie is the highest evolution of mankind," Wolfe said.

My level, the gang, is the lowest. But once communities begin destroying middle class values by treating neighborhood schools as

Noise abatement cash making racket

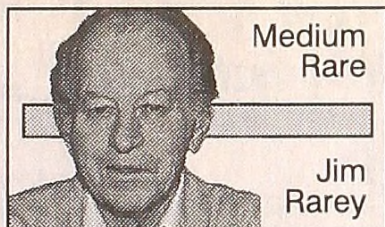

For the last ten years or so, Wayne County has been receiving $5 million grants each year from the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) for a noise abatement program.

It has spent the money either "noise proofing" homes in the designated area or purchasing the homes and land of homeowners who chose that option.

Homes eligible for the sound-proofing or purchase were determined as those that lay within a controversial "footprint" said to have been developed by a FAA computer program. Most of the eligible homes are in either Romulus or Huron Township although other communities in the area are subject to severe airplane noise.

About midway into the program, the county began acquiring property for its Pinnacle project, an 1,800-acre area south of the airport. It became obvious that some of the properties purchased with money from the noise abatement program would be included in the Pinnacle project.

The county was asked if the two programs would be kept separate and were assured that funds

Medium Rare

would not be commingled.

Based on a verbal interpretation from the FAA, it was understood that the county would have to pay back the airport trust fund for the money it used to buy Pinnacle properties. However, the county said its understanding was that the money could be kept and spent locally.

A written ruling was then obtained from the FAA which stated that federal pro rata share of the proceeds from the sale or lease of those properties could be used locally in approved noise abatement programs. (There is a county matching requirement that would not have to be used for noise abatement.)

A few months ago, at a Romulus Council meeting, county officials said they had spent about $7 million of noise abatement money for property within the Pinnacle boundaries. They said that amount would be paid back to the noise abatement program.

This writer was quick to point out that the FAA ruling required the federal portion of the "proceeds" (not the purchase cost) to be put back into the noise abatement program.

According to figures supplied by the county in its request to the state for a "smart zone" designation, the resale and leasing of the properties would generate about three and a half times the purchase costs.

At that ratio, proceeds from disposal of the properties costing $7 million would be about $25 million. The federal share to go back to the noise abatement programs would be between 20 and 22.5 million dollars. A significant difference from just paying back the $7 million (if that is an accurate number).

The Romulus City Council at this Monday's meeting was to consider a resolution urging the county to abide by the FAA ruling and keep an accurate accounting of all of the transactions involving the properties.

SOUND OFF EXTRA

Caller questions Lentine's belief in US Constitution

At the July 3 Wayne council meeting, Councilwoman Lentine made a remark about an item that appeared in Sound Off about Council McEachern.

What was Councilwoman Lentine advocating? Abolishing people's freedom of speech right? She took an oath to uphold the US Constitution. Is she backsliding? She ought to take a refresher course in Government 101 because this is supposed to be a government of the people, by the people, and for the people, not for Josephine Lentine.

I don't believe in some things but I will stand up and defend that person's right to say it.

Think about it Councilwoman Lentine, don't abolish our freedom of speech.

Why does senator support $2 million for country club?

We need to ask Sen. Loren Bennett why he introduced an amendment on June 26 to an appropriations bill to give $2 million of taxpayers' money to a country club in West Bloomfield.

I think that everybody would like to know why Sen. Bennett introduced that amendment.

The next caller to the Westland Whiners Club should be nice

I am told this is the official web site for the Westland Whiners Club, where the motto is: "We live to complain." Or in other words, "If you're for it, we're against it."

Come on folks, try to say something positive once in awhile.

Westland City Council meetings ready for wide screen

Since an exciting campaign season has begun, here is an idea for some fun fund-raising: an all night marathon showing off last year's Westland City Council meetings at Showcase Cinema.

Those that love to watch themselves on TV could have a good laugh at all of the antics.

Those that would love a chance to scowl at the likes of Griffin and Cox one more time could be provided with tomatoes to toss at the screen.

Time for Westland mayor to enforce city's sign ordinance

I have noticed many "Price is Right" campaign signs. I'm assuming that it's not the TV show but Police Chief Emery Price.

There's an ordinance against campaign signs being up too soon, but then we have Price's buddy in the mayor's office — the mayor who has eliminated the people who enforce the ordinances.

It's time for the mayor to get to work and get his book out and start writing tickets and passing out big fines to the ordinance violator.

Westland will become trashy if we allow these signs to remain up until September 11.

If Chief Price can't follow the sign ordinance now, what other rules is he going to break? Having on-duty police officers walk around with "Price is Right" T-shirts?

If you break one rule, you break them all.

LETTERS FROM OUR READERS

Voucher Lady responds to anonymous critic

To the editor:

To the author of the July 5th Sound Off making reference to me using such words as "vengeance... vendettas... innuendoes... accusatory tones... negativity and interrogation" with respect to our local government and school board: I believe I know who you are.

And, I have faith that those citizens who have either closely participated or paid attention to the local affairs over the last two years will figure out who you are as well.

You claim the truth to be that my child is not even a student in the Wayne-Westland school district. Perhaps you should check your facts before calling me a liar. I have no reason to lie.

However, as long as I reside in Westland and pay taxes here, I have every reason to ask questions that involve my child's education and how my tax dollars are spent.

I don't need your permission, nor do I need your blessing to do so. It's called citizen participation and if you don't like the concept of accountability, then go find a rock to hide under. I believe that the majority of Westland residents like the fact that accountability is making a comeback.

Many of the voucher items I questioned, and you laughed at, are now the focus of several upcoming campaigns. So go ahead and make me the butt of your jokes for those who will laugh with you. I will continue to hold my head up high knowing that I'm not asking for anything other than accountability.

On the issue of the freebie cars, Richard LeBlanc has frequently said "no," when others have said "yes." I hope that the voters will remember that when they go to the polls.

As for your applauding Mayor Thomas instructing his staff not to answer my voucher-related questions, touche! I'm only sorry that the paper didn't print your entire Sound Off as it appeared on-line for those citizens who do not have a computer or Internet access.

I think that statement alone coming from you speaks loud and clear to those who have come to know you. Perhaps the negative statements you made about me are really a reflection of yourself.

A question is not an accusation. However, when the answer makes no sense, can't be verified or is avoided all together, most people will sense dishonesty.

I hope that those who read your Sound Off about me and this response to you, will remember your last statement, which I will restate in closing: "I urge people to remember, just because a person makes an accusation, does not mean it is based in truth."

Council members not so innocent about mayor's pension

I don't think anyone wanted to steal the mayor's pension. He would never allow that to happen.

I have to wonder if there exists meeting minutes from when some of these salary-pension things were discussed and voted into place. Such an important thing as compensation should never be left for speculation. We should not have to guess at what previous council members had in mind when policy was set.

But then again, I think many knew exactly what they were doing, and it's called "milking the cow for all it's worth!"

Well, this cash-cow called "tax-payers" is just about running dry.

Westland Parade could have used a marching band

Nice parade, but where was the music or the marching bands?

The bikini girls for the tanning place were a little much. There must be more talent in the city of Westland than that. A celeb or two should have been included. (and I don't mean retired lounge singers).

Pageant contestant did great job advocating arts in Westland

I watched the Westland Summer Festival Pageant on cable. Congratulations to the winner and good luck to all of the participants.

I really thought the girl who spoke about the need for an arts council in Westland did a great job of expressing her opinion.

I felt sorry for the one girl who was questioned about her political affiliation. That was not necessary and put her on the spot. I realize

Angela Todd urged to write a column, not long-winded letters

To Angela, author, council-watcher, and dancer: Glad you enjoyed the church dance, you are welcome anytime.

My only thought is that I see you write so many times to the newspaper.

Why don't you get a job with the paper and ask for a column all your own? Then there will be more space for other people in the editorial section.

Caller suspicious of council candidate's motives

Mario Gracin said that he wasn't going to run for city council, and now he's endorsed by the UAW.

I wonder what happened to all the money people donated to the Gracins' legal fund. Is that money going to be used to finance his campaign? This is really suspicious. I would of not have donated to their legal fund had I had know about this run for office.

I guess the Gracins have shown their true colors to the community. The recall was about politicking for Gracin for council.

I wonder if Trav and the others are going to run for council too.

Sound Off trashing Mario Gracin was unfair speculation

Nice variety in the July 5 Sound-Offs. I agreed with many of the comments, but some were unfair, in my opinion.

I hate to see any of the candidates dragged through the mud by people who don't leave a name. That is unfair.

The one about Mario Gracin (that appeared on-line July 5 and above in print above) was the worst because it was pure speculation.

Please stop the constant negative behavior in Westland, it serves no purpose.

Pass an ordinance regulating political signs in Westland

I do not understand about the sign ordinance and was glad Cheryl Graunstadt brought it up at the last council meeting.

How can there be nothing in writing about such an important thing as the rules governing placement, size and timing of political lawn signs?

Most residents hate looking at those things. Having them up from July to September is excessive.

Somebody pass a motion. Let's get this firmed up.

With the police chief running for mayor and the police department now assigned to ordinance enforcement, how fair is that?

Suggestions to make Westland Summer Festival better

To the hardworking Westland Summer Festival Committee: Thanks for your sacrifice of time for the Westland Summer Festival.

The parade was very nice and I hope next year it is even better with a couple marching bands added for the enjoyment of the crowds along the route.

The grounds were clean and a good presence of police and fire. But, it seems the grassy area is so far from the food and carnival area that most people don't even go there. Perhaps a really large sign directing people and showing what was being offered could be considered. We don't want people to leave and not see everything.

Also, I would like to see more crafters. A handcraft display (not a sale) inside the Bailey Recreation Center would be really nice, like the one at the Michigan State Fair with quilts, needlework, even pies and jelly. Or even other art displays from area residents, like photography, painting, etc.

Should read paper before sounding off about missing item

I'm sorry about saying the Sound Off about Chief Price was not in the paper. I was out of town on and off and did not take the time to read before I spoke.

Thank you and again I apologize.

Beware of job-hunting retired mayors with laptops

Perhaps the outburst towards Ivan at the last city council meeting coming from Mayor Thomas was based more on jealousy than anything else. He did say he was looking forward to retirement with more time to devote to his "writing."

Watch out Ivan, maybe he wants your job!

Nice Westland police chief should get his own house in order

Silver Anniversary: 17 teams seek Anderson title

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Seventeen softball teams, including a dozen that are nationally ranked, make up the field of the 2001 Leonard J. Anderson Memorial Tournament.

The tournament, co-sponsored by the Wayne Parks and Recreation Department, will be staged the weekend of July 20 at the Anderson Softball Field, Howe and Annapolis Road.

"This year's tournament - the Silver Anniversary tournament of this event - will have some very good teams in it as in the past 24 years," said Larry Quartuccio, tournament director.

"We feel the teams that have accepted the invitation to compete here are among the best in the nation."

Quartuccio pointed out that Metro Glass/Mizuno, a ball club out of Westland, which finished third a year ago at the Anderson, made an excellent showing in the USSSA Class B World Series last year and will be ready to challenge for the Anderson title.

"They are currently ranked number 10 in the nation in Class A," said Quartuccio.

Quartuccio also views

Plumbers & Pipefitters, a team from Lansing, as a serious contender. Wartom/Worth, from Clinton Township, ranked No. 8 in the nation in Class A, also definitely will be a team to contend with.

"Looking over this year's field I can tell you there are a number of very good teams that are capable of winning the event," the tournament director stressed. "Don't let the rankings misguide you."

Here is a list of teams, their managers, and their home-bases.

The 2001 Anderson Tournament field includes: ABT, out of Northville, managed by Mark McDonald; Academy Fire Protection, managed by Ken Tennant, out of Wayne; ICC, from Canton Township; Imlay City Eagles, managed by Tony Palacios, of Imlay City; J & K Transportation, managed by Wade Evans, from Garden City; JD's Rage, managed by John Dicio, of Westland; and LDJ/Pony Express, managed by Cliff Johnson, of Detroit.

Also entered: LJD/Varsity/Easton, the defending champ, managed by Larry Quartuccio, out of Westland; Metro Glass/MIZUNO, managed by Jerry Zimmer, out of Westland; Metro Glass/US 12, managed by Jerod Hura, of Westland; Motor City Mold, managed by Pete Chonacas, of Plymouth; Plumbers & Pipefitters, managed by John Dobernick, of Lansing; and Rose City Motors/Worth, managed by Dave Hatler, of Jackson.

Also ready to play are: S & L Painting, managed by Steve Witkowski, of Garden City; Sallco Softball, managed by Ted Salvadori, of Garden City; Wartrom/Worth, managed by Bert Boyless, of Clinton Township, and Ypsilanti Merchants, managed by Mike Johnson, of Ypsilanti.

The tournament will offer a Kids' Day this year, which is sponsored by the Wayne Parks and Recreation Department. From 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. on Saturday, July 21, children will have an opportunity to enjoy the Moonwalk, Speed Pitch, and other entertaining features.

The annual Home Run Derby will be staged at 9:45 on Friday, July 20, and this year's derby is sponsored by Easton Sports Company's traveling road show, "The Bomb Squad".

The Bomb Squad will have on display for fans some of the finest equipment there is for softball. Officials say equipment may be tested free of charge.

Inkster captures Monroe hoops title

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Matt Miller tossed in 18 points and Vic Morris sank 12 as Inkster buried host, Monroe, 54-33, in the finals to capture the Monroe Summer Shoot-out Invitational Basketball title.

The championship capped an impeccable 9-0 record for Coach Gerald Paschal's "Coming At You" ball club.

The champs defeated "Prime Time", a team out of Ypsilanti, 44-32, in the semifinals as Dwayne Jones scored a game high 16 points. Morris added 10.

"It was a great team effort," said Paschal, a product of the Detroit Public Schools who serves as Inkster High's junior varsity basketball coach. "These kids definitely had great attitude."

Matt Miller, one of four players in the lineup out of Belleville High, was named the tournament's MVP. Miller, along with Will Jones, Myron Woods and Alex Walton, represented Belleville in Paschal's All-Star lineup.

Inkster High had three impressive talents in the championship lineup: Brandon Dawson, Victor Morris and Allen Sledge.

Rounding out the "Coming At You" team are Ann Arbor Huron's Ryan Stubleski; Ypsilanti's Gerald Paschal, Jr., the coach's son; and, from Willow Run, there were DeMarcus Vaughn, Anthony Gore and James Howell.

Some 10 teams competed for the 2001 Monroe Shoot-out Championships.

"It was a great tournament," said Paschal, "and it was even greater to win the championship. Give the kids a lot of credit. They did an exceptional job."

Coach holds track class

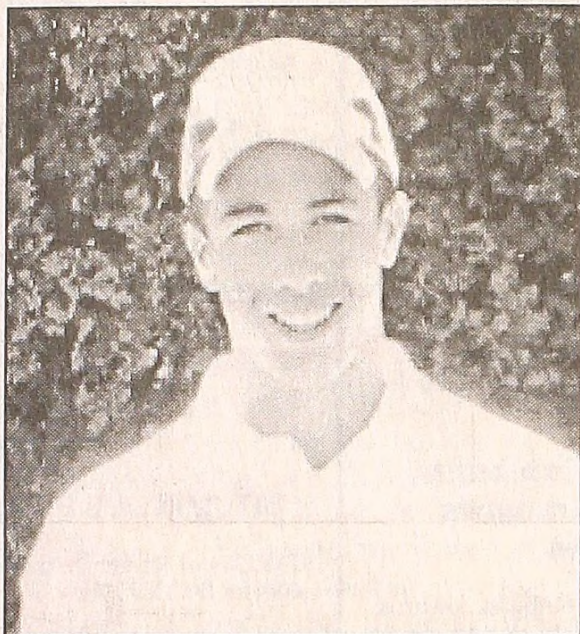

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

If you're between the ages of 8 through 18 and want to learn or improve your track skills, Inkster High varsity Track Coach Eugene Thomas would like to hear from you.

Classes are conducted Monday through Friday for boys and girls.

"We meet on the field at the high school, and we're inviting anyone who is interested in learning or improving their track skills to attend," said Thomas.

Thomas may be reached during the a.m. hours at his office, 313-794-5653, extension 267. He doesn't mind if you contact him at home, either. The coach's home telephone number is 248-474-2875.

Canton teen falls short of winning Michigan Golf Cup

Jason Adkins of Dearborn Heights fired a 38-39-77 on Friday to edge Canton Township's Brandon Scero (38-40-78) by one stroke in the High School Division of The Michigan Cup Junior Golf Tour event staged at Fox Hills Classic Course in Plymouth.

The two outstanding young golfers tied with 38's on The Hills course before Adkins parred two of the last three on the Woodlands nine to win the tournament.

Joseph Gagnon fired two birdies and two pars on the back nine in his 42-38-80 third place finish, while Brian Hejka parred the last two holes in his 41-41-82 fourth position and Plymouth's Scott Jewett's 42-43 earned fifth spot.

In a four-way tie for sixth place with 87's were Canton's Nathan Perkovich (44-43) and John Palmer (42-45), Daryl South (Plymouth, 46-41) and Phil Liddle (Southgate, 46-41).

Fifteen of the 20 high school-age swingers broke the century mark in this tour event which is designed to help younger golfers hone their skills.

Those who shot in the 90's included Kyle Kosmyna, of Canton, (47-43-90); Joshua Frison, of Dearborn, (44-47-91); Anthony Gemus of Riverview (46-45-91); Brent Medlen of Livonia (45-47-92); Josh Blaies of Garden City (49-43-92) and Corey Skiff of Allen Park (48-45-93).

Rounding out the field were Richard Ganas (51-52-103); David Sheppard (53-51-104); Jamie Siedlaczek (51-56-107); Eddie Bellany (58-52-110) and Lyrrad Braceful (62-60-122).

In the Blue Division of The Michigan Cup Junior Golf Association, which includes Middle School students sixth through eighth grade, Jack Smith, of Plymouth, won with a 44-42-86 while Tyler Staber, also from Canton Township, checked in at second place thanks to a 52-45-97. Dearborn Heights' Derek Moos turned in a 60-52 for 112, good for third place honors.

After a tournament this week staged at Willow Metro Park in New Boston, the Red and Blue Division golfers in the summer tour will duel 18 holes at Taylor Meadows on July 17 and July 18 and on July 19 they'll move on to Fellows Creek Golf Course in Canton Township.

The young golfers earn points during the 12-tournament summer schedule and the player with the highest total will be named the season's champion.

Golfers are given "Place" points based on where they finish in each week's tournament and earn "Performance" points for each par, birdie, eagle and Ace in each round.

In a recent tournament at Woodlands of Van Buren, Mike Ebel shot a brilliant 69 to win the high school division, and Matthew Robinson carded an 87 to capture honors in the middle school bracket.

Thirty-two players from the Red Division will hold a 36-hole, two-day Tournament Players Championship at Taylor Meadows on Aug. 20-21 to decide the individual champion.

The Blue Tour will compete over 18-holes at Taylor Meadows on Aug. 20 to determine the individual winner in the sixth through eighth grade division.

After four tournaments, Gagnon leads the Red Division in point totals with 360; Adkins has 330, followed by Frison, who has compiled 300 points. Liddle and Scero are tied for fourth. Each has 265.

The top five point-getters in the Blue Division include Canton's Ross Gerulis with 195 points, followed by Ty Staber with 175; Ben Underwood, 170; Derek Moos, 160; and Derek Schmitt, who has 145.

Wayne captures St. Clair Shores title

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Wayne picked up its third gem of the baseball campaign over the weekend at the St. Clair Shores Invitational.

Manager Bill Hardin's ball club once again brought home the hardware as the Wolves strung together six consecutive victories to surface with the tournament crown.

"We had great pitching, hitting, and outstanding defense," said Hardin later. "It's hard to beat a team that refuses to lose, even when they are down by five or six runs."

The Wolves launched their bid for the title with an impressive 13-0 shutout over the Titans of Clinton Township. Pitchers David White and Anthony Savone combined for 12 strikeouts - they faced 15 batters in the five-inning affair called because of the "mercy rule".

At the plate, the Wolves received "big hits" from Alex Avart, Mike Broughton, and Will Lewis.

Next up for the champs were their familiar league rivals, the Novi Heat. The Wolves quickly cooled the Heat with a barrage of hits, and they came away with little sweat and another shutout (15-0) win.

Avart and Jamell Terry carded a no-hitter. J. J. Pierce led the assault on Heat pitchers as he drilled a triple, double and single. Teammate Will Heiningner chipped in with three hits.

The local ball club then faced co-host, the St. Clair Shores' All-Stars. The Wolves outscored their hosts, 16-1, as all 11 Wayne players managed to get at least one hit.

In the bid for the title, the Wolves found themselves facing an equally-talented Royal Oak ball club. Royal Oak surged to an 8-4 lead before the Wolves got their wake up call.

A dramatic rally, sparked by Terry's three-bagger, a walk to Heiningner and Pierce's single down the left field line set the stage. When White walked and Billy Hardin perfectly executed a squeeze-bunt that put him on first and drove in one run, the Wolves came within one of erasing the deficit.

Will Lewis also surprised the defense when he, too, pulled off a squeeze that pushed across the tying run. The stage was set for a climatic finish.

In the bottom of the seventh inning, Wayne's Byron Glenn drew a base on balls, then Anthony Avone unloaded a two-run homer to lift the Wolves to a 10-8 victory.

"The squeeze play has been our bread-and-butter play all year," said Coach Dave Cowart.

The semifinals was against the St. Clair Shores Cavaliers, another talented team. Pitchers Savone, Cowart and Terry got the job done on the mound, while Heiningner and Byron Glenn came through at the plate with two hits apiece. The victory earned the Wolves a shot at pre-tournament favorite, the Sterling Heights Titans.

"This game turned into a war," said Hardin later.

Sterling Heights built up an impressive 6-1 lead over the visitors and was well on its way to victory and the tournament title when the Wolves struck back.

Back-to-back singles by White and Glenn and a pair of walks to Savone and Terry set the stage. When Heiningner's grounder went through the middle, it allowed the Wolves to score three big runs and made it a 6-4 ball game.

Savone then replaced Terry on the mound and, in the sixth, he fanned the side. In the bottom of the sixth, with two away, the Wolves took command for good.

Hardin walked. He moved to second when White came through with a single, his third hit of the game. Cowart singled Hardin home and Glenn then singled the tying and what proved to be the winning run across the plate.

The pressure was one Savone to remove the final three obstacles standing between his team and the tournament crown. He responded by retiring the Cavalier's third, fourth and fifth batters to win the emotional ball game, 8-7.

"This was one game, one tournament that our kids didn't want to lose," said Hardin, in a telephone interview on Tuesday.

And they didn't.

On the road again this weekend, Wayne will travel to Kentucky where they will play in the World Series. They'll also take an impressive 43-3 overall record with them.

Inkster's Lee to play for WCCC

Inkster High's multi-talented athlete, Sharon Lee, has opted to continue her volleyball career and her education at Wayne County Community College, according to WCCC coach Larry Gipson.

Lee has signed a letter of intent to attend the WCCC this fall. She'll be attending class at the Van Buren Township campus.

Lee was a unanimous choice of coaches for the Mega Conference, Red Division volleyball team. The 5-6 Inkster standout, tagged as a defensive specialist, will join three Detroit Finney and a Detroit Pershing players on the incoming WCCC team.

The Finney recruits include

Amber Bellany, a 5-10, outside hitter; Brandy Flanary, also considered an outside hitter; Alisha Pope, a setter, and Pershing's 6-foot Latrice Davis, a middle hitter.

Gipson, in his first year as head coach, said he was attracted to Lee because of "her determination, winning spirit, and work ethics."

Gipson added that he knew Lee's high school coach and that their professional relationship has made it possible to recruit talent that would enhance the team's ability to compete.

WCCC will launch the 2001 volleyball season on Aug. 22 in Ohio.

Close ones in ladies league

The scores don't get any closer than they did last week in the Women's Suburban Golf League.

Ginny Karolak managed to survive a late rally by a pair of golfers - Nancy Wilkie and Carol Niemur to win top honors in the First Flight, Low Net honors race, while in the same flight, but Low Gross duel, Jan Antieau and Jo McVicar finished in a dead heat. Both carded 87's to share medalist honors. One stroke back was Wayne's Terry Deisler, who toured Reddeman's Farms Golf Course with an 88.

Karolak shot a 74 for Low Net accolades, beating out Wilkie and Niemur, who both finished with 75's.

Meanwhile, in the battle of the Second Flight, Low Net honors, it was Penny Irwin (64), who scored a three-stroke victory over Rae Wenslaff, of Canton Township. She walked into the clubhouse with a winning smile.

For Low Gross honors, Second Flight, the top honors went to Dolly Vettese, who posted a 91.

She edged Mary Jean Stepan for top honors. Stepan had a 93.

One stroke also was the difference in the duel between Gloria Hudson and Pat Wilson for medalist honors in the Third Flight, Low Net battle. Hudson emerged the winner thanks to a round of 70, while Wilson had a 71.

In the Low Gross race, Lori Wilson's 96 stood up as the best score of the afternoon. Runner-up was Jan Nelson, who toured the course with a 99.

WPOA is seeking golfers

If your golf game is up to par, and even if it isn't, the Wayne Police Officers Association is seeking golfers to participate in its annual golf outing.

The outing will be staged with a shotgun start at 8:30 a.m. on Friday, July 20, at the Taylor Meadows Golf Course, located at 25360 Ecorse Road, in Taylor.

To register, a golfer will have to come up with an $80 per person entry fee.

For the fee, there's 18-holes of golfing, with a cart, a continental breakfast, and on the evening menu, there are steak or chicken dinners.

Plus, participants will receive a t-shirt and bag tag as evidence that they have participated in the outing.

Organizers say that there will be prizes for the first place team (the format is a four-person team, scramble), longest drive, and closest to the pin.

There is also a $10,000 Hole-in-One prize on all Par 3's. A Florida golf trip is also being offered.

For further information, please contact Matt Spunar, Terry Webb or Terry Foley.

Future hoop stars, attention

Future basketball stars are invited to register for a free summer basketball camp that is sponsored by the Legends of Inkster.

The camp will be conducted Aug. 3-4 at the Booker T. Dozier Parks and Recreation Complex, 2025 Middlebelt Road, in Inkster.

The Legends is a group of former professional and college hoop stars, who act as instructors for the camp. They will provide basic hoop instructions for all those that participate. The camp is in its fourth year and attracted more than 250 campers a year ago.

Entry forms may be obtained at the Recreation Complex.

The two-day camp offers children an opportunity to meet some of the finest basketball coaching talent in the country, while learning basketball skills.

The camp director is Fred Smiley, a former All-American.

Entry forms may be obtained at the Recreation Complex.
